Keynote Speaker
Former U.S. Senator

Olympia Snowe

Olympia Snowe is a well-respected voice in Washington who based her career on principled policymaking and bipartisan compromise. When first elected to Congress in 1978, at the age of 31, Olympia was the youngest Republican woman, and the first Greek-American woman, ever elected to Congress. She served three terms in the U.S. Senate and sixteen years in the U.S. House of Representatives. Her distinguished career in Congress was marked by extensive work in the areas of budget and fiscal responsibility, education technology, welfare reform, healthcare, and women's issues.
